A Celebration of Craft Beer

Naperville, Ill. — Calling all beer enthusiasts, beginners and hard core geeks – get a "hop" on American Craft Beer Week as Naper Settlement debuts the first in a series of "Liquid History" events. During "A Celebration of Craft Beer" from 6 to 9 p.m. Saturday, May 14 at Naper Settlement, 523 S. Webster St., Naperville, stroll the grounds munching appetizers and tasting craft beers from six exceptional breweries - Summit, Bells, BridgePort, Rogue, Samuel Smith and Lindemans. Guests will have the unique opportunity to interact with representatives from these breweries to learn about each specialty beer and the story of the breweries; plus learn about the history of Naperville's Stenger Brewery.

Guests will be able to enjoy 12 4-ounce tastes from a selection of 17 unique craft beers presented in five historic buildings. Featured breweries and beers include: Bells - Amber Ale, Oberon and Pale Ale; BridgePort - Hop Czar, India Pale Ale and Kingpin; Lindemans - Framboise-Raspberry Lambic and Pêche-Peach Lambic; Rogue - Dead Guy Ale and Somer Orange Honey Ale; Samuel Smith – Nut Brown Ale and Oatmeal Stout; Shiner – 102 Double Wheat and Ruby Redbird; and Summit – Extra Pale Ale, Hafe Weizen and Horizon Red Ale.

Advance reservations are recommended; must be age 21 and over to attend. There are limited tickets available at the door. Advance tickets are $40 per person; $45 at the door; $25 Designated Driver tickets. Call (630) 420-6010 for tickets or purchase tickets on-line at www.napersettlement.museum.

History comes to life at Naper Settlement, an outdoor history museum, located in downtown Naperville at 523 S. Webster St. Accredited by the American Association of Museums, Naper Settlement has 30 historic structures ranging from a rustic log cabin to an elegant Victorian mansion, listed on the National Register of Historic Places.
